Overview

Indrid Coald presents Monetized, a single released on July 7, 2026. Monetized - Indrid Coald The Debut Single from Indrid Coald Monetized is the explosive debut single from Arizona alternative rock artist Indrid Coald, introducing one of the boldest new voices on 1st Drop Music. Combining the raw aggression of 90s punk rock, rap rock, industrial influences, and heavy electronic production, the song delivers an unforgettable first chapter in the world of Indrid Coald. Inspired by the unsettling mythology surrounding the mysterious Grinning Man and the atmosphere of The Mothman Prophecies, Indrid Coald serves as a symbolic messenger. Rather than predicting catastrophe, he exposes the warning signs already surrounding us and challenges listeners to question the systems humanity continues to build. A World Where Everything Has a Price At its core, Monetized asks an uncomfortable question: What happens when everything becomes a commodity? Driven by crushing distorted guitars, relentless drums, gritty electronics, and unapologetic vocals, the song explores a world where health, education, relationships, creativity, attention, and even compassion are increasingly measured by profit. The systems shaping our lives are not inevitable—they were created by people. Monetized encourages listeners to examine those systems with equal parts rebellion, dark humor, and self-awareness. Rather than offering simple answers, Indrid Coald invites listeners to think critically about the future we're creating together. The Sound of Indrid Coald Musically, Monetized blends: 90s Punk Rock Rap Rock Alternative Rock Industrial Rock Heavy Electronic Music Alternative Metal influences The result is a sound that's loud, melodic, aggressive, chaotic, and surprisingly infectious.
