Kick the Crown

Overview

Feral Business presents Kick the Crown, a single released on April 8, 2025. Feral Business Unveils Powerful Electronic Goth Rock Anthem "Kick the Crown" Feral Business, the innovative electronic goth rock band based in Flagstaff, Arizona, has released their newest electrifying track, "Kick the Crown." Known for blending haunting goth aesthetics with pulsating electronic dance beats, the band has crafted an anthem that is both a powerful musical experience and an incisive political commentary. "Kick the Crown" emerges from Feral Business's much-anticipated and continually evolving album, "Sanpaku Eyes," and solidifies their reputation as fearless innovators within the alternative music scene. The song confronts authoritarian leadership and power dynamics head-on, using a compelling fusion of darkwave drones and driving techno rhythms to deliver its provocative message. The song's atmospheric layers and hypnotic melodies underscore Feral Business's signature style—a unique marriage of alt-rock, electronic, goth, and dance music. The lyrical intensity coupled with the dark, mesmerizing soundscape creates an immersive listening experience that resonates deeply with audiences. Released under 1st Drop Music, "Kick the Crown" is accompanied by an equally impactful lyric video that enhances the song’s compelling narrative. The visuals reinforce the song’s bold message, making it an essential viewing for those who appreciate thought-provoking and genre-defying artistry. As "Sanpaku Eyes" continues to evolve, Feral Business consistently pushes the boundaries of their sound, ensuring each new track not only complements their growing discography but also expands their reach and influence within the alternative and electronic music communities. Fans of goth, darkwave, techno, and electronic rock will find "Kick the Crown" an essential addition to their playlists. Join the sonic revolution and explore the profound world of Feral Business—where music, message, and movement unite. Experience "Kick the Crown" now, streaming on all major platforms, and...
